Community Guidelines

Overview

We'd like The Great Love Project to continue to be an authentic and safe place for inspiration and expression of Love. Help us foster this community. Post only your own photos and videos and always follow the law. Respect everyone on The Great Love Project, don't spam people or post nudity.

The Details

The Great Love Project is a reflection of our diverse community of cultures, ages, and beliefs. We've tried to create a safe and open environment for everyone.

We created the Community Guidelines so you can help us foster and protect this amazing community. By using The Great Love Project, you agree to these guidelines and our Terms of use. We're committed to these guidelines and we hope you are too. Overstepping these boundaries may result in deleted content, disabled accounts, or other restrictions.

Share only photos and videos that you've taken or have the right to share.

As always, you own the content you post on The Great Love Project. Remember to post authentic content, and don't post anything you've copied or collected from the Internet that you don't have the right to post.

Post photos and videos that are appropriate for a diverse audience.

We know that there are times when people might want to share nude images that are artistic or creative in nature, but for a variety of reasons, we don't allow nudity on The Great Love Project. This includes photos, videos, and some digitally-created content that show sexual intercourse, genitals, and close-ups of fully-nude buttocks. It also includes some photos of female nipples. Nudity in photos of paintings and sculptures is OK.

People like to share photos or videos of their children. For safety reasons, there are times when we may remove images that show nude or partially-nude children. Even when this content is shared with good intentions, it could be used by others in unanticipated ways.

Foster meaningful and genuine interactions.

Help us stay spam-free by not artificially collecting likes, followers, or shares, posting repetitive comments or content, or repeatedly contacting people for commercial purposes without their consent.

Follow the law.

The Great Love Project is not a place to support or praise terrorism, organized crime, or hate groups. Offering sexual services, buying or selling firearms and illegal or prescription drugs (even if it's legal in your region) is also not allowed. Accounts promoting online gambling, online real money games of skill or online lotteries must get our prior written permission before using any of our products.

We have zero tolerance when it comes to sharing sexual content involving minors or threatening to post intimate images of others.

Respect other members of The Great Love Project community.

We want to foster a positive, diverse community. We remove content that contains credible threats or hate speech, content that targets private individuals to degrade or shame them, personal information meant to blackmail or harass someone, and repeated unwanted messages. We do generally allow stronger conversation around people who are featured in the news or have a large public audience due to their profession or chosen activities.

It's never OK to encourage violence or attack anyone based on their race, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, religious affiliation, disabilities, or diseases.

Serious threats of harm to public and personal safety aren't allowed. This includes specific threats of physical harm as well as threats of theft, vandalism, and other financial harm.

Maintain our supportive environment by not glorifying self-injury.

Encouraging or urging people to embrace self-injury is counter to our environment of support, and we'll remove it or disable accounts if it's reported to us. We may also remove content identifying victims or survivors of self-injury if the content targets them for attack or humor.

Be thoughtful when posting newsworthy events.

We understand that many people use The Great Love Project to share important and newsworthy events. Some of these issues can involve graphic images. Because so many different people and age groups use The Great Love Project, we may remove videos of intense, graphic violence to make sure The Great Love Project stays appropriate for everyone.

We understand that people often share this kind of content to condemn, raise awareness or educate. If you do share content for these reasons, we encourage you to caption your photo with a warning about graphic violence. Sharing graphic images for sadistic pleasure or to glorify violence is never allowed.

Help us keep the community strong:

- Each of us is an important part of The Great Love Project community. If you see something that you think may violate our guidelines, please help us by reporting it. Even if you or someone you know doesn't have a The Great Love Project account, you can still report abuse. When you complete the report, try to provide as much information as possible, such as links, usernames, and descriptions of the content, so we can find and review it quickly. We may remove entire posts if either the imagery or associated captions violate our guidelines.
- Many disputes and misunderstandings can be resolved directly between members of the community. If one of your photos or videos was posted by someone else, you could try commenting on the post and asking the person to take it down. If that doesn't work, you can file a copyright report. If you believe someone is violating your trademark, you can file a trademark report. Don't target the person who posted it by posting screenshots and drawing attention to the situation because that may be classified as harassment.
- We may work with law enforcement, including when we believe that there's risk of physical harm or threat to public safety.
